Mrs. L. Froch will visit this place again on the 5th, 6th, and 7th of June, 1869.

Mr. B. Liebenthal has remodeled the front of his store room. Quite an improvement.

COOPERS WANTED.—Mr. E. L. Smith of this place wants two practical coopers immediately.

The weather is as fine and pleasant as any mortal could desire. The cherry trees are beginning to bloom, and we hope for a good crop.

The well known dry goods house of Moore & Bartlett, speaks to our readers by day, both by proclamation and otherwise.

A RARE CHANCE.—Go to Moore & Bartlett's, and see of dry goods just received from the East. Rare bargains are offered. ap203.

A NEW Bank, with a capital of $100,000, has just been established at Van Wert, Ohio. D. A. Johns is its President, and A. S. Burt, Cashier.

Messrs. Stevenson & Sears have decided to build a large molding room and blacksmith shop, on the ground occupied by the old shops.

"Occidental" favors our readers with several items from Nevada. He understands the business, and we wish we had such correspondents at Carey, Marcellus, Sycamore, Bellevue, McCutcheon, and in fact in every village and township in the country. Items of local news is what we like.

HARRISON SEED POTATOES.—Those desiring to secure some of the above celebrated potatoes for seed, should call on Mr. A. G. Tribolet, who has a supply on hand. These potatoes are highly spoken of, and we doubt not deserve all the praise bestowed upon them.

A Fast Hog Again.—L. Bowman, of this place, is the proprietor of a Berkshire and Chester white pig, seven months old, which weighs about 200 pounds; but Mr. Bowman makes no pretensions as a stock man, his business being that of cabinet-maker, in which he excels admirably, and is certainly hard to beat.

The Upper Sandusky Fire Department held an election at its room on the 24th instant, and the following officers were chosen:

J. T. Grosse, Chief; Jno. Agter, Assistant; W. J. Harper, Secretary; G. Rappold, Treasurer; P. O. Brien, Fire Engineer; G. B. Stevenson, Second; Jont Gump, Third; C. Gelhart, Fourth; Directors—Jno. IMPORTANT TO ALL.—We would respectfully inform the people of Upper Sandusky and Wyandot county that we have received our stock of Spring and Summer goods. We have purchased them under very favorable circumstances, and are prepared to give the best of bargains. We want the people to call and examine our goods and prices for themselves. MOORE & BARTLETT. ap203.

WHERE shall a man go, with a few dollars or so, to buy clothing the cheapest, most durable, finest and best? W. A. Widman will sell such a pile, that it will make you smile, and wonder how he undersells all the rest, (without going under.) But the reason is plain and I won't tell it again, for if this there can be no denial, that his goods are not shoddy, for he sells to everybody and if you doubt it, go to No. 3, Beery's block, and give him a trial.

Respond! Please!—We despair dunning, but actually compels us to ask those indebted to us to pay up. These are quite a number who have not paid for the REPUBLICAN for one, two, three years, and, being reasonable men, they will surely not require us to wait long on them. Those indebted to us for advertising and job-work, we hope, will call and favor us with the small sums due us, and thus save us the disagreeable task of calling upon them. Remember that it is a pleasure to pay an honest debt.

We understand that a large number of dogs have recently come to premature death in Upper Sandusky. It is said that a postmortem examination is not necessary to discover that poison has been at work.

A vigorous thunder storm visited this vicinity last Monday night. The copious shower which accompanied it, was quite refreshing, and revived vegetation. The peals of thunder were terrific. A locust tree in front of Dr. Bartlett's residence was pretty badly shattered, the bark being scoured over the area of an acre. A few years ago the north end of the Dr.'s residence was struck by lightning, and considerably damaged.

The appointment and confirmation of Thomas E. Griswoll, Esq., of Upper Sandusky, as Collector of Internal Revenue for this District, gives general satisfaction. Mr. Griswoll is a native of this county. Mr. Griswoll will make a faithful and efficient officer, and will conduct the office with credit to himself and honor to the Government.—Hancock Freeman.

The entertainment, given by the Continental Vocalists, at Beery's hall, on last Friday evening, was one of the very best and pleasing of any that has been given at this place for a long time. The audience was large, and composed of the most intelligent and refined of our people. This is really a troupe of talented artists, and wherever their concert merits are known, they will be greeted by full houses. We trust they will visit our place again, as they have promised us to do, if possible, and we warrant them a still larger house.

Mr. Isaiah Morris is in town for the purpose of renovating feather beds. He warrants satisfaction to all who may favor him with anything in his line, and in case entire satisfaction is not given, no charge will be made.

We had Mr. M. renovate a feather bed and pillows. These he promptly returned, the same day he took them away, seeming to contain double the amount of feathers. It was well done. Mr. M. may be consulted at the room of Mr. George W. Beery.

The Pierson House was opened to the public on Wednesday. The house is commodious, everything new, and the rooms well ventilated and splendidly furnished. The furniture was manufactured by our townsman, Jacob Schaefer, and speaks volumes in its praise. As we said once before, the proprietors, Messrs. Pierson & Son, and indeed the whole family, were particularly designed by nature for the business of Hotel keeping, and we assure the travelling public, that if genial, accommodating landlords, good food, and comfortable rooms are desirable, they will call at the Pierson House when they visit Upper Sandusky, every time.

JUDGMENT has been rendered in the United States District Court, in St. Louis, against the 22nd Insurance Company, of Hartford, for $110,000. Cin. Gazette 16th.

We have no knowledge of this company having published a statement of its condition in this country where it is doing a large business, for the year 1868 and 1869. Such reluctance on the part of this company, to comply with the requirements of the law of our State, we regard as being far from commendable.

A MAN of peculiar habits and vigor, for his age, Mr. S. Howe, who resides in this county, two miles east of Forest, 73 years of age, has drank no intoxicating liquors for 30 years, uses no tobacco, tea, coffee, pepper, soda, boiled flour, salt or stimulants of any kind, enjoys remarkable good health, walks briskly without tiring, and declares that he feels as vigorous and young as when he was in his 18th year. He says that the idea, generally entertained, that whet men become old, they cannot enjoy life, is based upon very erroneous principles, and backs up this assertion by a declaration that he enjoys life fully as well as he ever did.

NEVADA, O., April 26, 1869. ED. REPUBLICAN: Nevada still lives, and has settled down again to comparative quiet after the bustle of "moving," consequent on the return of the inevitable first of April. Business is reviving, and new establishments are springing up. A new hotel opens to-day in the Reid block, east side of Main street. Jas. Lemon, Proprietor. May it be crowned with success, and keep whiskey at a distance. A new millinery establishment has been opened in McCutcheon's building, opposite the brick block. Opposition is the life of business. The M. E. church is now finished except painting, and a vigorous effort is being made to place a fine bell in it before dedication, which will take place on the fourth Sabbath in May. Those who may be in attendance may reasonably expect a rich treat by way of a discourse or two, as the Revs. Dr. Merrill and Granville Moody will be with us.

NEVADA, O., April 18, 1869. ED. REP. A fire broke out in the house of Mr. Adam Resh, on Monday evening while the family were away, and entirely consumed the house and contents. It was a log house, in the southwest part of town, belonging to Mr. Heller.

The exhibition at Balliet & Maskey's hall, last evening, was a financial success. The hall was crowded to overflowing with a very attentive audience. The school did not finish, and the audience proposed that they finish on Thursday evening, and give a benefit to Mr. Pfister's clothing store is in full blast.

Mr. Dejeans has been appointed Postmaster at this place, and took possession of the office yesterday. He is a very worthy gentleman. Mr. L. Nichols is his deputy.

A NEW R. R. TIME TABLE west into operation on the P. & W. & C. R. R. last Sabbath, but we have not yet received the corrected time. The trains pass here as follows: West—7:30 A. M., 10:57 A. M., 7:03 P. M., and 11:16 P. M. East—7:55 A. M., 7:53 A. M., 4:51 P. M., and 5:18 P. M.

VALUABLE SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKS. C. C. Lyon, Esq., of the firm of Adams, Blocker, & Lyon, of No. 155, Randolph street, Chicago, has presented to the National Sunday School Teacher, a monthly eight page paper of the highest literary character, and adapted to the wants of every Sunday school scholar of every grade, to have the infant class, and also "Eggleston's Sunday School Manual," a model of typographical beauty, and replete with golden thoughts. These publications are gotten up in an admirable manner, and we heartily commend them to Sunday school teachers and parents generally, solely because we regard them eminently worthy of a large circulation. They will do great good.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—The Lancaster Gazette, of last week, pays the following well deserved compliment to one of its recent subscribers:

The postmaster at Royalton notifies us that Israel Spadt, a subscriber to the Gazette, is no longer a citizen of Ohio! "But where, of all us where, is he to be found?" "He owes us $5, and we thus place him first on our Roll of Dishonor."

Israel Spadt, gone to parts unknown, leaving the Gazette minus $5. Quite a number of relatives of said Spadt, (relatives in principle, we mean,) have left this county in a similar manner. If there be any more of them, we give due notice that in future we intend to follow the example of our esteemed cotemporary, and shall send marked copies, containing such "compliments," to the editors nearest the residence of such sneak, as an introductory recommendation. Mark that.

VERY little business was accomplished by the Reform Meeting last Sabbath afternoon, the time being occupied in discussion of the various propositions submitted to the meeting.

We again take occasion to suggest what seems to us the most practical course to pursue. Appoint a committee to present the petition, which has been circulated, and generally signed by the business men and citizens of the place, to the town council. It is not necessary that said petition be signed by the ladies, because they are known to be unanimously in favor of the object of the organization. We do not know the views of the Council on the subject, but those members with whom we are acquainted, are gentlemen who entertain a proper regard for the Sabbath, and desire to promote the peace and welfare of our community. We therefore entertain a strong hope that a favorable response would be received, from that body, in case said petition should be presented.

We would add, that in as much as our citizens hold very wide views on the subject of the observance of the Sabbath, some concessions should be made to the end that harmony may be attained.

Eric Railway. THE GREAT THROUGH ROUTE TO THE EAST.—This Company now control and operate thirteen hundred miles of road, extending from Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo and Rochester to New York.

It is of the six feet gauge, nearly a third wider than other roads, enabling the Company to construct and use coaches correspondingly larger and more comfortable. Its track has been placed in thorough repair by the substitution of Steel Rails at such points as are subjected to the greatest service, and where the highest rate of speed is required to be made.

New and Improved Sleeping Coaches accompany all night trains. They are heated by steam, perfectly ventilated, contain spacious and elegant "Drawing and State-rooms, and combine all the modern improvements.

Excellent Dining Saloons are located at convenient points upon the line, where ample time is allowed for meals. Three Express Trains daily are run from the western terminus of the road to New York without change, making as quick time as by any other route.

The long distance run without change—860 miles—and the spacious accommodations of its Broad Gauge Coaches, especially commend this route to families and ladies.

Tickets via this popular line can be obtained at all principal Ticket Offices throughout the country.

THE AMERICAN YEAH BOOK.—Messrs. O. D. Carey & Co., of Hartford, Connecticut, have furnished us with a copy of the above truly valuable work for which they have our thanks, and sincere wishes for their complete success in the laudable enterprise of giving to the American nation such a truly valuable book. In the language of that able journal, the New York Sun, "it is a universal almanac, filled with information, and presented in so compact a form. The Hon. Horace Greeley says that it 'contains much that every man would like to know, and more than one man ever did know.' The labor bestowed must have been immense, and it gives a better collective view of the progress and material resources of our people than any other compilation." Among other valuable statistics, it includes tables of the principal officers of the Government, from the first Continental Congress to the present time, list of Governors in every State from its admission into the Union down to 1869, accurate Congress and Committee lists, a complete table of Ministers resident and of Consuls, a full compilation of Assessors and Collectors, Army and Navy lists, the names of all the colleges in the United States, with their character, location, and date of organization, abstract of public laws, statistical sketches of all the States and territories, nearly one hundred pages of Presidential election figures, giving the vote of every county in the United States from 1836 to 1868, and obituary notices of the distinguished dead of 1868. The compilation of the volume reflects great credit on its editor, Mr. David N. Camp. This work will be sold by subscription, and its proprietors offer the most liberal terms to agents. A copy can be seen at our office. See advertisement.

PERSONAL.—It afforded us very much pleasure, on last Tuesday, to meet our old and highly esteemed friend, Hon. H. S. Martin, of Canton, O., who was on his way to Illinois, Iowa, and from thence to Tennessee, on special business for Uncle Sam. His scholarly attainments and unimpeachable integrity particularly fit him for the position, and we are especially gratified to know that his faithful and efficient services to the Government has rendered him a favorite of the Treasury Department.
